About the receiver's bank account registration on "Deposit into bank account" to China

Thank you very much for regularly using Seven Bank accounts.

In this regard, we would like to inform you that with the Western Union change in policy, the rules for registering the receiver's account number using "Deposit into bank account" service to China will be changed accordingly. These changes will be effective from November 20, 2015. For future applications, kindly register your receiver's account as follows, regardless of the receiving bank.

In addition, all existing receiver's account number that do not correspond below will no longer be available for payout starting from the mentioned date.

Seven Bank will personally contact all customers with registered receivers involved in this matter.

We apologize for any convenience this may cause you.

【Receiver's account number to be registered (※)】

Starts from "62", with total length of 14 to 19 digits

(※Receiver's account number is indicated on the cash card and not the passbook number)

Again, we sincerely apologize and appreciate your kind understanding and cooperation.
