[Important] Partial changes to the Money Transfer "Remittance Organizer Function"

Effective from October 18, 2021 (Monday), the "Money Transfer Organizer Function" of the Seven Bank Money Transfer Service App (hereinafter referred to as "This App") will be partially changed as follows.

(1) Effective from October 18, 2021 (Monday), the yearly remittance statement of Seven Bank international money transfer service with Western Union will be available to download from this app.

* To use this function, you need to update the app to its latest version.

* The remittance statement of Seven Bank international money transfer service with Western Union that will be available on this app are statements from January 1, 2021 onwards. All statements before December 31, 2020 will not be available for download on the app.

* Integration of data with Mobile Remit Service sa 'Pinas with BDO Unibank is not available. Data acquisition is required separately for each service.

(2) As of October 17, 2021, in the "Money Transfer Organizer function" of this app, among the functions such as taking photos of ATM receipt using this app's camera and remittance history management functions, the function to take new photos of ATM receipts will be terminated.

* For photos of ATM receipts that have been taken with this app until October 17, 2021 (Sunday), the money transfer management function will still be available after October 18, 2021 (Monday).

* Out of the remittance management functions that use ATM receipts, neither the taking photo of ATM receipt function nor the remittance history management function can be used from the newly updated app (including re-downloads after deleting the app once).

Starting October 18, 2021 (Monday), you can now conveniently download the remittance statement for free from the "Check Yearly statement" menu of this app. Kindly use this function from now on.

Thank you for your continued patronage.
